Should Microsoft receive harsher penalties?

I am very disappointed with the Feds settlement. Fortunately nine states' AG's agree with me. I have sent the following to the states' AG's dissatisfied with the terms of the USDOJ settlement agreement. This settlement is to the benefit of Microsoft and not to the markets and consumers.

It seems to me that Microsoft has indulged in not only anti-trust violations but racketeering as well. Monetary reparations will do nothing to stop their abuses that have stifled the computer industry for years and years.

As you can see, my position well exceeds current prosecution parameters. Even if you don't agree with my extreme position, but desire more vigorous prosecution, I urge you to continue this case until an appropriate separation of Microsoft entities is made.

I urge you to continue this case. Do not fold in the face of adversity. You stand for everything this country was found on. Freedom.

God Bless you.
